

2000 Pinot Noir

The logo for Oak Knoll Oregon Wines is enclosed in a black square with a white border. The text 'Oak Knoll' is written in a large, elegant, cursive script. Below it, 'OREGON WINES' is written in a smaller, clean, sans-serif font.

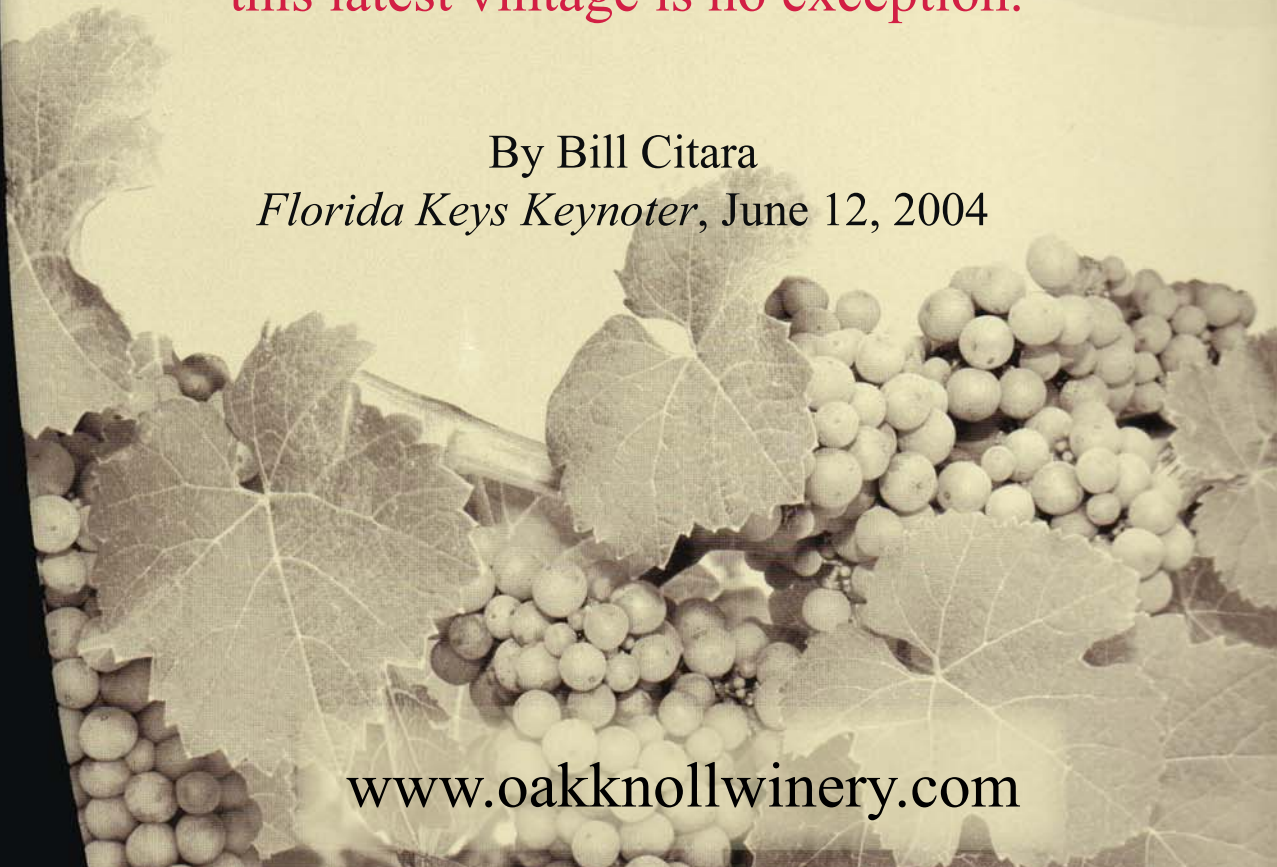

Oak Knoll
OREGON
WINES

“One of the best values and food-friendliest wines on the market these days is the 2000 Oak Knoll Pinot Noir. ($13)”

This Oregon winery consistently turns out remarkably sophisticated wines at equally remarkable prices, and with a touch of trademark Burgundian earthiness to go with its mild cherry-raspberry flavors, this latest vintage is no exception.”

By Bill Citara

Florida Keys Keynoter, June 12, 2004

A detailed black and white photograph of a bunch of grapes hanging from a vine, surrounded by large, textured leaves. The grapes are clustered together, and the leaves show prominent vein patterns.

www.oakknollwinery.com