

OakKnollWinery.com

As Seen on...oregonlive.com - June, 19 2010

Oak Knoll Winery hosts six summer concerts

Mark your calendar for six great concerts this summer at the Oak Knoll Winery. Families listen or chat with neighbors as they enjoy the park-like setting. Admission is $5 for anyone 21 and older, minors are free. There will be a full dinner available from the James Gang BBQ caterer at every concert.

The first concert is 6 to 9 p.m. Thursday, featuring music by Everyday People and rack of pork dinner. July 8 showcases Generation and slow-smoked beef brisket. July 22 will feature Old Elbows with pulled pork sandwiches. The Aug. 5 lineup is Rock Residue and Polynesian beef kebobs, and Aug. 19 is Rust and pork spare ribs.

The final Toast to the Tunes concert starts at 11:30 a.m. Sept. 11, Patriot Day, featuring music by Oregon Beatles and Rock Hounds.

Bring your own picnic or enjoy the dinner specials, no outside beverages please. Beer, wine, soda and water available for purchase at the winery, 29700 S.W. Burkhalter Road. Information: 503-648-8198

— Rebecca Luedloff