Toast of the Tunes at Oak Knoll Winery near Hillsboro is Thursday

Michael O. Stevens, community blogger

As with the heat, Toast of the Tunes is back this week with the fifth of six summer concerts on Thursday night at Oak Knoll Winery. This edition has The RUST as the headlining act, and pork spareribs as the food headliner.

The series finale is on Saturday, September 11th with Oregon Beatles and the Rock Hounds providing the music for the afternoon affair.

Festivities start at 6 pm and run until 9 pm at the winery located at 29700 SW Burkhalter Road, just off Oregon 219 near Farmington View Elementary School.

The RUST, the headlining act, is a melodic rock band from Portland. Their influences include Journey, Elton John, Rush, and Styx.

Although you can bring your own food, no outside beverages are allowed at the concerts. Beverages are available for purchase, as is food. As mentioned before pork spareribs from the James Gang are the featured dish this week. Admission is $5 for those over 21, with everyone else getting in for free.
