

OakKnollWinery.com

As Seen on...www.spotmagazine.net, Monday March 1, 2010, By Kennedy Morgan

Your A to Z Guide for Day-tripping in the Northwest

You know those times when you can't take an extra day from work or one of your weekend days is already booked? Or when you get a day off in the middle of the week and are just itching to get out and enjoy? When you these unexpected chances for a getaway arise, don't make the mistake of thinking it's got to be an extended vacay to be worthwhile. Take a look at these great destinations. The Pacific Northwest is rich with ways to pack great adventures into a single day!

Hillsboro

Maybe sipping wine that is local, handcrafted, and unique is more your speed. Oak Knoll Winery's historic site west of Portland welcomes you and your pet with open paws! Stop on by and have a taste.